Holiday Inn Newport
WEDDING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Booking

- Please provide approximate numbers when making a provisional booking.
- Once a provisional booking is made with the Holiday Inn Newport a non-refundable and non-transferable deposit is required.
- The hotel will then send a contract confirming the initial details and highlighting these terms and conditions of the booking.
- Once the contract has been signed and returned to the hotel the booking becomes guaranteed and all parties are bound to these terms and conditions.

2. Payment

- A non-refundable, non-transferable deposit of £400.00 is required to guarantee the booking.
 - The following payment schedule will apply
- 24 weeks prior to the wedding date a further non-refundable, non-transferable 50% of the estimated total is required.
28 days prior to the wedding date the final balance is required.

3. Postponement or Amendment by the client

- Final guest numbers are required 28 days prior to the wedding date when the final balance is required. Should the numbers decrease after this time no refunds will be applied. Should the numbers increase and providing the hotel can accommodate the increased numbers, full payment must be made prior to the contract being amended.
- Postponement must be made to the hotel in writing. The hotel will attempt to assist any change of date; however, any monies paid are non-refundable or transferable.

4. Cancellation by the Hotel

- The hotel may cancel your booking if any of the following events occur:
- The hotel is closed due to fire, by order of a public authority or by any other cause outside our control
- The hotel is sold to a third party
- The person or entity making the reservation is declared bankrupt or has become insolvent
- If the client is more than 7 days in arrears with any payments to the hotel
- If the client breaches any provisions of their contract and fails to remedy its breach within 7days
- Once you have been refunded for the cancelled reservation, we will have no further liability regarding your reservation.
- The hotel conducts risk assessments on all large bookings and reserves the right to change, add conditions or cancel any booking it reasonably believes poses a greater risk to the hotel than was originally believed.

5. Cancellation by the Client

- The client is advised to take out insurance against any cancellation of the booking.
- In the unfortunate event of any cancellation, the Hotel will require confirmation in writing and all payments made will be forfeited.

6. At the wedding

- Please note: any belongings left in the wedding suite on the day are left at owners own risk.
- We will not permit any non-hotel purchased alcohol to be consumed on the premises, including car park areas. Any alcohol found will be confiscated by Hotel management.
- Fireworks need to be authorised by the party with South Wales Fire service.
- Any entertainment provided by the organiser needs to be authorised by the hotel and the Public Liability Insurance document must be provided at least 14 days prior to wedding, failure to provide will result in the entertainment being disallowed.

7. Accommodation

- Wedding guests will be required to contact the hotel direct to book and pre-pay for accommodation.
- The hotel will provide a minimum allocation of 10 bedrooms, at a reduced rate, for purchase by Wedding guests
- This allocation is subject to availability at the time of confirming the event, by payment of deposit
- Any rooms from the allocation, not purchased by guests 28 days prior to the Wedding, will be released. Accommodation for guests may still be available for guests after this date, however the prevailing rate on the date of booking, will apply.

Please note that we hold the right to release your reservation if we have not received this agreement, duly signed where indicated, within 7 days of issue

Yours Sincerely,

Jennifer Howells
